

Mansion Lounges Menu

Welcome to the Mansion Lounges. This is where the Earls of Clarendon would host and entertain notable guests including Queen Victoria, George Stubbs and Captain Cook.

The 5th Earl of Clarendon became Queen Victoria's 'Aide de Camp' – her Secretary and Aide - and started the English tradition of lavish house parties for the Queen and her posse. House guests included Edward VII, Horace Walpole and Lord Palmerston. It was a new phenomenon which The Times named "Weekending".

In the 1920's the aristocratic family left The Grove causing The Times to publish a letter mourning the passing of "One of the greatest political houses of the 19th Century".

Today, we are delighted to be welcoming you to this wonderful Mansion house to share our hospitality in the true spirit of The Grove and where we hope you too will feel like royalty.
