SHORT DESCRIPTION

Set in 300 acres of verdant Hertfordshire countryside, just 18 miles from London, The Grove is the ultimate five-star retreat.

The former home of the Earls of Clarendon, the hotel has been lovingly restored and is now home to 214 luxurious bedrooms and suites, the Lounges, various meeting and event spaces and five unique dining outlets: The Glasshouse, The Stables, Sequoia Kitchen, Madhu's and the Lounges.

Just a picturesque meander from the historic mansion and a stone's throw from the contemporary West Wing, you'll find the newly refurbished Sequoia spa and beyond that, the championship golf facilities that played host to the 2016 British Masters.

Outside, the grounds promise stunning gardens and Asher's Woodland Trails, perfect for family activities including archery lessons and bike rides. The Grove's hidden gem is the enchanting Walled Garden, an oasis of tranquility, complete with Ralph's Beach, Jemima's Kitchen Garden and two tennis courts.

LONG DESCRIPTION

Set in 300 acres of rolling Hertfordshire countryside, The Grove promises the ultimate five-star retreat.

Inside, the recently refurbished contemporary West Wing is home to Classic, Superior and Deluxe rooms, whilst the 18th century mansion houses 13 character-filled rooms and 12 unique suites, including the breath-taking Grove Suite with panoramic views of the grounds.

From a theatre of international cuisine at The Glasshouse to British classics at The Stables, sushi in the Lounges to Sequoia Kitchen, dining at The Grove promises options aplenty - each just as tempting.

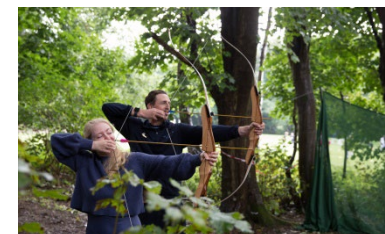

A short stroll through the grounds, you'll come across the newly refurbished Sequoia spa. Lose yourself in a maze of relaxation, with facilities including the inky black mosaic-lined swimming pool, sauna, steam room and wellness pool. The Grove is also home to one of the UK's most prestigious golf courses and even hosted the British Masters in 2016. Open to all who love the game, there is no membership policy, however regular players can take advantage of the Clarendon Collection loyalty programme.

Golf is not the only on-site activity. With such expansive grounds, expect a fun-filled schedule at Anouska's Kids Club, a haven of biodiversity to explore at Jemima's Kitchen Garden, swimming and beach games at Ralph's Beach and bike rides, woodland axe throwing, and archery at Asher's Woodland, not forgetting sports on Gabriel's Football Pitch.
